Thankful for Frisco's teams

Happy Thanksgiving! As we celebrate our national holiday, there is much to be thankful for.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

MAYOR MAHER MASO

Congratulations to FC Dallas on making club history and becoming Western Conference Champions! The team continued its record setting unbeaten streak by defeating the LA Galaxy, previous MLS champion, in Los Angeles in a convincing manner: 3-0. They take their record-setting 20 game streak to the MLS Cup Championship. The new Western Conference Champions, FC Dallas, will travel to Toronto to take on Eastern Conference Champion Colorado on Sunday, Nov. 21 at 7:30 p.m. CT on ESPN.

If you have been watching our home team take many other cities to "school", you will notice many shining stars. One of those stars is Coach Schellas Hyndman, who was named MLS Coach of the Year for 2010 in November. You may recognize Coach Hyndman's name, as he was at the helm of SMU men's soccer for about a quarter century! He has brought a new approach to FC Dallas and it shows in the form of winning results. I am excited for the players and fans as FC Dallas reaches the top! The game will be televised, and I hope you join us in supporting our local team.

Frisco has an international reputation for being a hub for sports at all levels – youth, school, amateur and professional.

In November, our newest professional team, the Texas Legends NBA D-League team, began play. The 'Legends' join the Texas Tornado hockey team at the Dr Pepper Arena. On November 18, the 'Legends' played their first, national-

Celebrate 20 years of Merry Main Street December 4; Favorite traditions and new ice capades show part of the festivities

Join the City of Frisco as we kick off the holiday season at the 20th annual Merry Main Street celebration on Saturday, December 4. The free event is located at the George A. Purefoy Municipal Center and Simpson Plaza at City Hall, located at 6101 Frisco Square Blvd.

Brand new to Merry Main Street this year is an ice capades show produced by instructors from the Dr Pepper Arena. The traditions our community has come to enjoy also continue in 2010. The annual Tree Lighting Ceremony will begin at approximately 6:00 p.m. Show up early in the evening to see the arrival of Santa Claus at 5 p.m.

Santa's made his list and checked it twice, so he will be ready to greet all the children of Frisco. The man in red will take pictures with girls and boys and listen to their wish lists. Photos with Santa will be provided courtesy of our sponsor, 3:16 Team Realty.

Santa checked in with us during his recent visit to the Frisco Community Parade. "The children of Frisco have been on their best behavior this year," said Santa Claus. "I hope they continue to mind their parents and work hard at school because my elves and I will be watching from the North Pole."

As you walk around checking out the food and vendor booths, the sounds of Christmas will ring through the plaza with music courtesy of Frisco Elementary School choirs. Students will sing from three stages located around the plaza filling the air with favorite carols and fun holiday songs.

The Kids' Holiday Store provides an opportunity for children 12 and younger to find something special for mom, dad, grandparents or a brother or sister. Everything in the store is priced at $5 or less. "Santa's Helpers" will assist children as they shop for special gifts. Shoppers will go home with wrapped gifts. Children can reserve a time slot in advance at the Merry Main Street site beginning at 4:30 p.m. Children must secure a bracelet in advance in order to shop. A complete list of shopping rules online.

incurred for the blood draw and testing.

Frisco residents interested in the testing must go to the office of Dr. Vicki B. Davis at 8680 East Main Street, Suite 1E, Frisco, TX, phone number: 972-377-2447. The blood testing can be done by appointment or on a walk-in basis. Please note that walk-ins may have to wait for staff availability. Citizens will be asked to confirm their residency prior to the testing.

All blood samples will be sent by Dr. Davis to ACL Laboratories for a lead concentration analysis. Results obtained by ACL will be returned to Dr. Davis. She will contact residents to provide and discuss the results and answer any questions.

"We are offering this testing to all residents of the City of Frisco in order to provide peace of mind regarding blood lead levels," said Don Barar, plant manager for Exide's Frisco recycling facility. "I encourage any citizen who has a question about blood lead levels to take advantage of this testing."

For questions regarding the testing, please contact either Dr. Davis or Susan Jaramillo at Exide, (203) 699-9133.

More information about Exide Technologies is available online at FriscoTexas.gov/Exide. The web page was created to keep residents informed about issues of concern related to Exide Technologies, which is a battery recycling plant located south of downtown Frisco.

ly televised game on Versus. While I usually avoid predictions, I attended the 'draft' and was very impressed with Donnie Nelson and his team including Coach Nancy Lieberman, General Manager Del Harris, and "Spud" Web, who is president of basketball operations. This team acquired four NBA first-round draft picks. I predict our 'Texas Legends' will be one of the top teams in the NBA D-League. Good luck to our 'Legends'!

Congratulations are also in order for Liberty, Wakeland and Centennial High Schools as all three football programs made the 4A playoffs. As of this writing, Liberty is still in the hunt for a state title. There isn't enough room in this article to talk about all school programs – athletic and otherwise – and the high level of student achievement. It is clear Frisco students achieve excellence in academics, sports, arts and innovation!

I can't write about sports without reminding you to buy your tickets for the NCAA Division I Football Championship game being played at Pizza Hut Park on January 7. Visit www.ncaa.com/fcs for additional information about the game. Frisco will host several thousand visitors for a week leading up to the championship game. This championship game will be played in Frisco for the next three years. With your support, it's my hope we can secure this game beyond our three year contract. We need your help in supporting this game as it will have a significant economic impact on Frisco and our neighboring cities. When we asked the NCAA to consider moving the game here, I told them our community will embrace and support the athletes and will help grow game attendance. Please join me at the game. You can also encourage your company to participate by purchasing blocks of tickets.

Again, for more information, go to www.ncaa.com/fcs or call the Pizza Hut Park ticket office at 469-365-0000.

I wanted to take a moment to also thank the team of volunteers who helped us with the annual Frisco Community Parade. I enjoyed seeing many families lining the streets supporting our community. This was the largest turn-out to date; and if you missed the parade, put it on your calendar for next year. The parade is held in early November every year. It's an opportunity to honor veterans for their sacrifice for our freedoms and to celebrate community spirit.

Don't forget to put Merry Main Street on your calendar on Saturday, December 4, from 5 – 9 p.m. This is another event that is not to be missed and has something for everyone in the family! This issue provides lots of information about all of the city-sponsored holiday events, but you can find more information online at FriscoMerryMainStreet.com

Frisco has a lot to be thankful for and there is much to celebrate here. On behalf of the Frisco City Council and staff, as well as my family, we wish you all safe and happy holidays and a wonderful New Year!

Missed Chunk Your Junk? Product Exchange Program available weekly

Hundreds of cars came through the Environmental Collection Center on November 6 carrying loads of cardboard, Styrofoam, household chemicals, computer and other electronic equipment for recycling and reuse.

If you missed the fall Chunk Your Junk (CYJ) event mark your calendar for 2011. The next CYJ will be February 12 from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Did you know many of the paints and other household chemicals dropped at the Environmental Collection Center are in excellent condition and free to other Frisco residents? Before you go to the store to buy supplies for your next project, check first at the Environmental Collection Center, located at 6616 Walnut St. Items regularly available in the product exchange program include: automotive supplies, household cleaners, fertilizers and weed killers, pesticides and varieties of paint. You must show proof of residency with a current Frisco water bill.

Currently the facility is open on Wednesdays 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturdays 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday hours are limited in December. Check the holiday hours listed on Page 2 of this edition of Focal Point.

Learn more about the programs offered through the city's Environmental Services division at FriscoTexas.gov/Recycling.

New membership incentives, equipment for the New Year at Frisco Athletic Center

As you make your list and check it twice this holiday season, the Frisco Athletic Center (FAC) wants to help you cross off setting your 2011 fitness goals. Sign up or renew your membership for next year now.

The FAC recently marked three years of helping Frisco residents make and keep their fitness resolutions. In November, the facility marked its two millionth member visit. For the fourth year of operation, the largest municipally-run fitness center in North Texas will continue to be open seven days a week, for more than 100 hours per week.

Membership fees will remain the same in 2011, and the city has not increased membership costs since the facility opened. The cost of an annual family membership remains $600, but there is an incentive for families who are current members. Any annual members who renew their family membership by its expiration date will receive a five percent discount. That discounted fee is $570.

The savings is even greater for founding members of the Frisco Athletic Center. Founding members who renew their annual, family membership by December 31 will receive a 10 percent discount, bringing the annual membership fee down to $540. Founding Members will also receive a FAC t-shirt (two per account).

Sign up early and you have the chance to win a Best Buy gift card to use for your holiday shopping or to treat yourself. Sign up a new or existing account for monthly auto draft payment between now and December 15, 2010 and your name will go into a drawing for a $250 Best Buy gift card. Those who sign up for monthly auto draft will also receive a free fitness t-shirt (one per account).

Purchase a new annual membership or renew your existing membership for a year between now and December 15 and your name will be entered into a drawing for a $500 Best Buy gift card.

In 2011 a four-month pass option is still available. It comes with a financial savings over a month-to-month membership. Those purchasing a four-month family membership for $230 will save $10 dollars off the month-to-month rate for the same time period. Individuals will pay $135 for the four-month pass, a savings of $5 off the month-to-month rate.

The rate for a day-pass remains the same: $8 for adults and $6 for youth ages 2 to 17. A complete list of membership costs is available online at FriscoFun.org/FAC.

All FAC memberships are free of initiation fees and long-term contracts. Included in the membership price is access to all of the free, group fitness classes offered at the Frisco Athletic Center. Currently there are about 60 classes offered each week. Personal training and some group fitness classes require an additional fee.

Providing state-of-the-art equipment is a priority for FAC staff. Members will see new equipment arriving in the fitness room in the next couple months including barbells, TVs and the new craze in cardio equipment – AMTs (adaptive motion trainers).

The two-story fitness and aquatic center has a total of 100,000 square-feet of space. It houses a main fitness area nearly 22,000 square feet in size. Members have access to equipment for stretching, cardio exercise, machine weights and free weights. Other features include two full-size gymnasiums, two racquet ball courts and two studios for aerobic and dance classes.

Swim year-round in the indoor aquatic center. The space features a children's play structure with slides, a warm water activity pool, a current channel with vortex, four lap lanes, and 'Big Blue,' our indoor water slide.

The outdoor aquatic center is open for fun in the sun from the Memorial Day Holiday weekend through Labor Day. The water park design includes two water slides, a lazy river, a children's play structure with slides, and a lagoon pool.

Free child care is also a part of your membership. The Fun Club operates from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday. The Fun Club is for children eight weeks to seven years of age. Reservations are required and can be made up to two days in advance by calling (972) 292-6600.

FAC also offers a way for you to fuel your workout and to feed your recovery after exercising. Stop by Café Frisco and enjoy a menu with more choices for breakfast, lunch and dinner during our hours of 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Café Frisco uses only the freshest ingredients, made-to-order, and always available to go. To optimize your workout, try one of the café's fat burner, energizer or protein shakes with pure whey protein, fresh fruit and no preservatives or additives.

Jump start your 2011 fitness resolutions now. Purchase a Frisco Athletic Center membership in person at 5828 Nancy Jane Ln. Non-Frisco residents can purchase any of the membership options, but pay a higher rate.

Currently the Frisco Athletic Center has about 11,000 members. During the summer months of 2010 membership climbed to 18,000. We thank our members for helping the FAC win a 2010 Neighbors Choice Award for "Best Place to Burn Calories" from the Dallas Morning News' Neighbors Go Frisco publication. Star Community Newspapers award FAC the "Best Gym in Frisco" award in 2009 and 2010.

For more information about the facility and programs offered go online to FriscoFun.org/FAC. The Frisco Athletic Center is operated by the City of Frisco Parks and Recreation Department.

Think green during the holidays

Boxes, bags and wrapping – oh, my! Remember these easy steps to maximize your recycling efforts this holiday season.

- Recycle your wrapping paper, packing tissue paper and cardboard boxes. You don't have to remove the tape.
- Keep and reuse gift bags for future holidays and celebrations.
- Bring your Styrofoam packaging, bagged Styrofoam peanuts, and plastic bags for recycling to the Environmental Collection Center, located at 6616 Walnut St., on Wednesdays 2 to 5 p.m. and Saturdays 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

- Make space for new gifts by donating used items to local charities where they will make someone else's holiday a little brighter.
- Recycle your Christmas tree. All trees in this program are composted, not land filled.

Please do the following:

- 1) Remove supports, electrical wiring, ornaments, nails and tinsel.
- 2) Place tree at least three feet away from your trash and recycling carts on your regularly scheduled collection day.
- 3) Trees must be five feet and/or 60 pounds or smaller. If tree is larger, it must be cut into sections less than five feet that weight less than 60 pounds.

- 4) Do not cover the tree with a plastic bag. This will prevent pick up.

- 5) Flocked trees are not acceptable in this program. Flocked trees can be collected for a $10 charge by arranging pick up directly through C.W.D. at 972-392-9300.

Congratulations to graduates of Frisco's Citizen Police Academy (CPA) Class 28

CPA students get first-hand exposure to the police department, its personnel and equipment, and are able to put themselves in officers' shoes every Thursday night that classes meet. Instructors for each week's courses are officers and employees of the Frisco Police Department who provide both classroom and hands-on lecture and instruction.

Frisco Police are currently accepting applications for CPA class 29. Apply as soon as possible. The department receives more applications than there are available seats each year. Class 29 is set to begin on February 24, 2011. Get your application online at FriscoTexas.gov/FriscoCPA
